

ADARE
MANOR

A legacy of luxury, beauty and romance.

*A future filled with joy, laughter, and love.
In between lies one perfect, unforgettable day... your wedding at Adare Manor.*

When you celebrate your wedding here, anything is possible. Each celebration is unique: fully bespoke and tailored to you and your love. From your very first enquiry with us, you will be in the expert hands of your dedicated wedding team, who will walk with you every step of the way until we wave you off to your honeymoon. Adare Manor is a gorgeous setting for a wedding beyond everything: the perfect canvas to create an unforgettable experience for you, your family and your guests.

Planning a wedding takes time, and we will use that time to build a real relationship with you. We will meet to give you a private tour of the Manor House and grounds and talk through all the wonderful possibilities for your ceremony and reception. We can give you recommendations for exquisite vendors, from flowers to music and beyond.

You will join us for a private tasting where you will meet the wider team, including the culinary and banqueting experts who will help you design a delectable menu: from canapés to cake, with wine pairings from our professional sommelier.

A day beyond everything

“Adare Manor was the very first venue we visited and the last! We agreed before even leaving that there was nowhere more spectacular or breathtaking that we could celebrate our love with our closest family and friends.”

Getting Ready

Gather your dearest friends close by and banish pre-wedding nerves with a range of delightful activities, from soothing spa treatments to exhilarating outdoor experiences on the estate grounds. Then retire to your glorious Stateroom to prepare for the big moment.

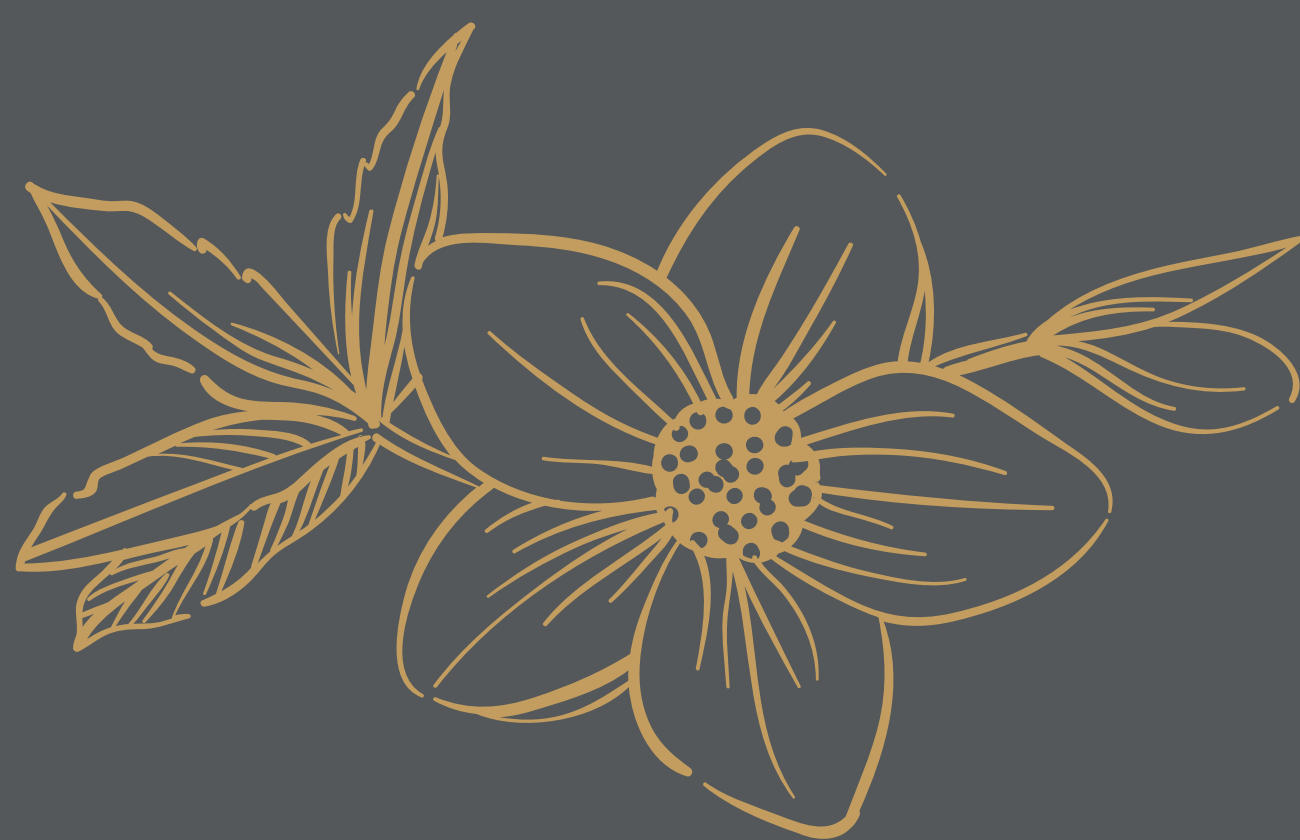

The Ceremony

Say "I do" in front of your dearest friends and family in an environment of beauty, warmth, and peace.

Whether your marriage will take place within the Manor House or gardens, or whether you have always dreamed of a church wedding, there are so many wonderful options available for your ceremony.

“Every last detail at Adare Manor is absolute perfection and the ultimate in luxury experience but what truly makes it stand out is the incredible team that makes every second spent at the Manor truly charming. We worked closely with the fabulous wedding planning team who showed immense attention to detail, planning and organising skills. They did an exceptional job of removing any stress from the coordination and planning of our big day.”

On Site Ceremony

We have the ability to host Civil Ceremonies, Blessings and Unions on site. In summertime (and with the help of a specialist outside wedding planner) the Walled Garden offers an enchanting option for an outdoor ceremony, especially with the addition of a tent or structure to guard against the possibility of capricious weather. For indoor ceremonies, one of our beautiful suites can be transformed into a graceful ceremony space for a maximum of 150 guests, The Grand Ballroom provides a magnificent setting for your exchange of vows.

A room hire fee applies for the room for your ceremony.

“The warm welcome that both us and our guests all received from the minute we pulled up at the Manor gates was genuinely warm and friendly - a true Irish welcome.

This is something that left a lasting impression on us all and even more than 2 years later our guests still remark on the incredible team and overall experience of Adare Manor.”

Wedding Photographs

Such an astonishing setting is a photographer's dream, with countless stunning locations for the photos you'll cherish forever. Romance is woven into every corner of our 840 acre estate, with extraordinary beauty everywhere you turn: from the tranquil beauty of the formal and walled gardens to the hushed grace of the ancient Ogham stones or the ancient majesty of the 400 year old Cedar of Lebanon tree. Within the Manor House, amidst the heraldry and portraits of the noble Dunraven family, the photographs you take will immortalise the moment your own family legacy begins.

The Celebration

The unique atmosphere and ambiance of Adare Manor offers a perfect balance of grandeur, elegance and comfort, for a wedding day that is both regal and relaxed. Its monumental scale and gothic glamour provides an unforgettable backdrop, but at its heart the Manor House is and always has been a home.

A singular spirit of warmth and welcome, and the genuine dedication of our team, make this a place the perfect setting for a wedding day full of love and laughter.

The Maigue Suite

Make your first entrance as a married couple down the fairytale staircase of the Grand Foyer, leading into Maigue Suite. This is a moment to pause and take it all in, just before you and your guests begin a wonderful evening of celebrations

As you greet your guests, enjoy an array of delicious canapes, created by our gifted culinary team and specially selected by you. Sip a refreshing glass of champagne or a specialty cocktail, and mingle with your favourite people in a setting of otherworldly beauty.

“Our wedding at Adare Manor was truly beyond everything and anything we could ever have dreamed of. From the second we stepped foot in the Manor on our wedding venue search we were completely enchanted...”

The Grand Ballroom

Our stunning Grand Ballroom with its sweeping staircase, marble floors, and crystal chandeliers is awe-inspiring enough for the most royal of occasions. Sit down to a fabulous five course meal with your guests. Our bespoke, seasonal menus feature glorious Irish ingredients, handpicked by our culinary team from the very best local, artisan producers and suppliers. Presented with style and served with grace and charm, each course will take your guest on a journey through the treasures of the Irish countryside. As the toasts begin, your guests will lift a glass of champagne to your future happiness. After the last delicious forkful has disappeared, our dedicated servers will bring out an exquisite selection of petit fours and sweets, with fresh brewed coffee and tea: the perfect prelude to a long night of dancing and making unforgettable memories.

“On the day of our wedding, everything ran so smoothly and with the sort of precision that could only be achieved when a team of absolute experts are running the show.”

Not Just One Day

The most wonderful gift you can give yourself and your loved ones is to extend your celebrations beyond a single day.

Give yourselves more time to share. More time to savour. More memories to treasure.

We can help you plan pre- and post-wedding celebrations, from intimate family dinners the night before to relaxed day-after barbeques where you can sip a fresh glass of champagne and relive the best moments in laid back luxury.

For larger gatherings, we have our Grand Ballroom, Maigne Suite, or our Walled Gardens.

For pre or post wedding celebrations, we have numerous memorable spaces that can accommodate private dining events for your loved ones, including; The glazed Terrace makes it possible for guests to enjoy the benefits of the stunning vistas yearround.

Fresh local produces takes centre stage, and the heart of the space is the show-kitchen, where guests can watch the chefs prepare each perfect dish. Our Michelin Plate-winning restaurant, The Carriage House experience centres around exceptional food and impeccable service in a stylishly relaxed atmosphere. Our Head Chef has created a menu featuring artisan ingredients sourced from across Ireland, showcased in exquisitely prepared dishes designed to delight.

The Private Dining Room in The Carriage House offers a lavish chamber for a sumptuous dining experience, seating up to 26 guests in a deep red panelled space, dimly lit for an atmospheric and intimate evening with your nearest and dearest.

Make yourself at home

One of the best parts of getting married at Adare Manor is how you and your guests are enveloped in the atmosphere of this place. While you're here, this is your home. After a thrilling day filled with happiness, excitement and emotion, retire in style to your magnificent Stateroom, where you can relax together in peace and privacy to relive the highlights of the celebration. A minimum room requirement of 25 Deluxe Manor rooms must be reserved for two nights. A Stateroom will be reserved for you, the wedding couple, with our compliments.

If you need more accommodations, the neighbouring Adare Manor Lodges are a wonderful option for families and groups of friends. Just ask us about rates and availability.

*“It really was the most magical day of our lives and we can’t thank you enough for helping to make our dreams come true...
we’d give anything to do it all again!”*

A lifetime of love

Of course, even after the last dance has been danced, the last glass has been emptied, and you're setting off into your new life together, it's not really over.

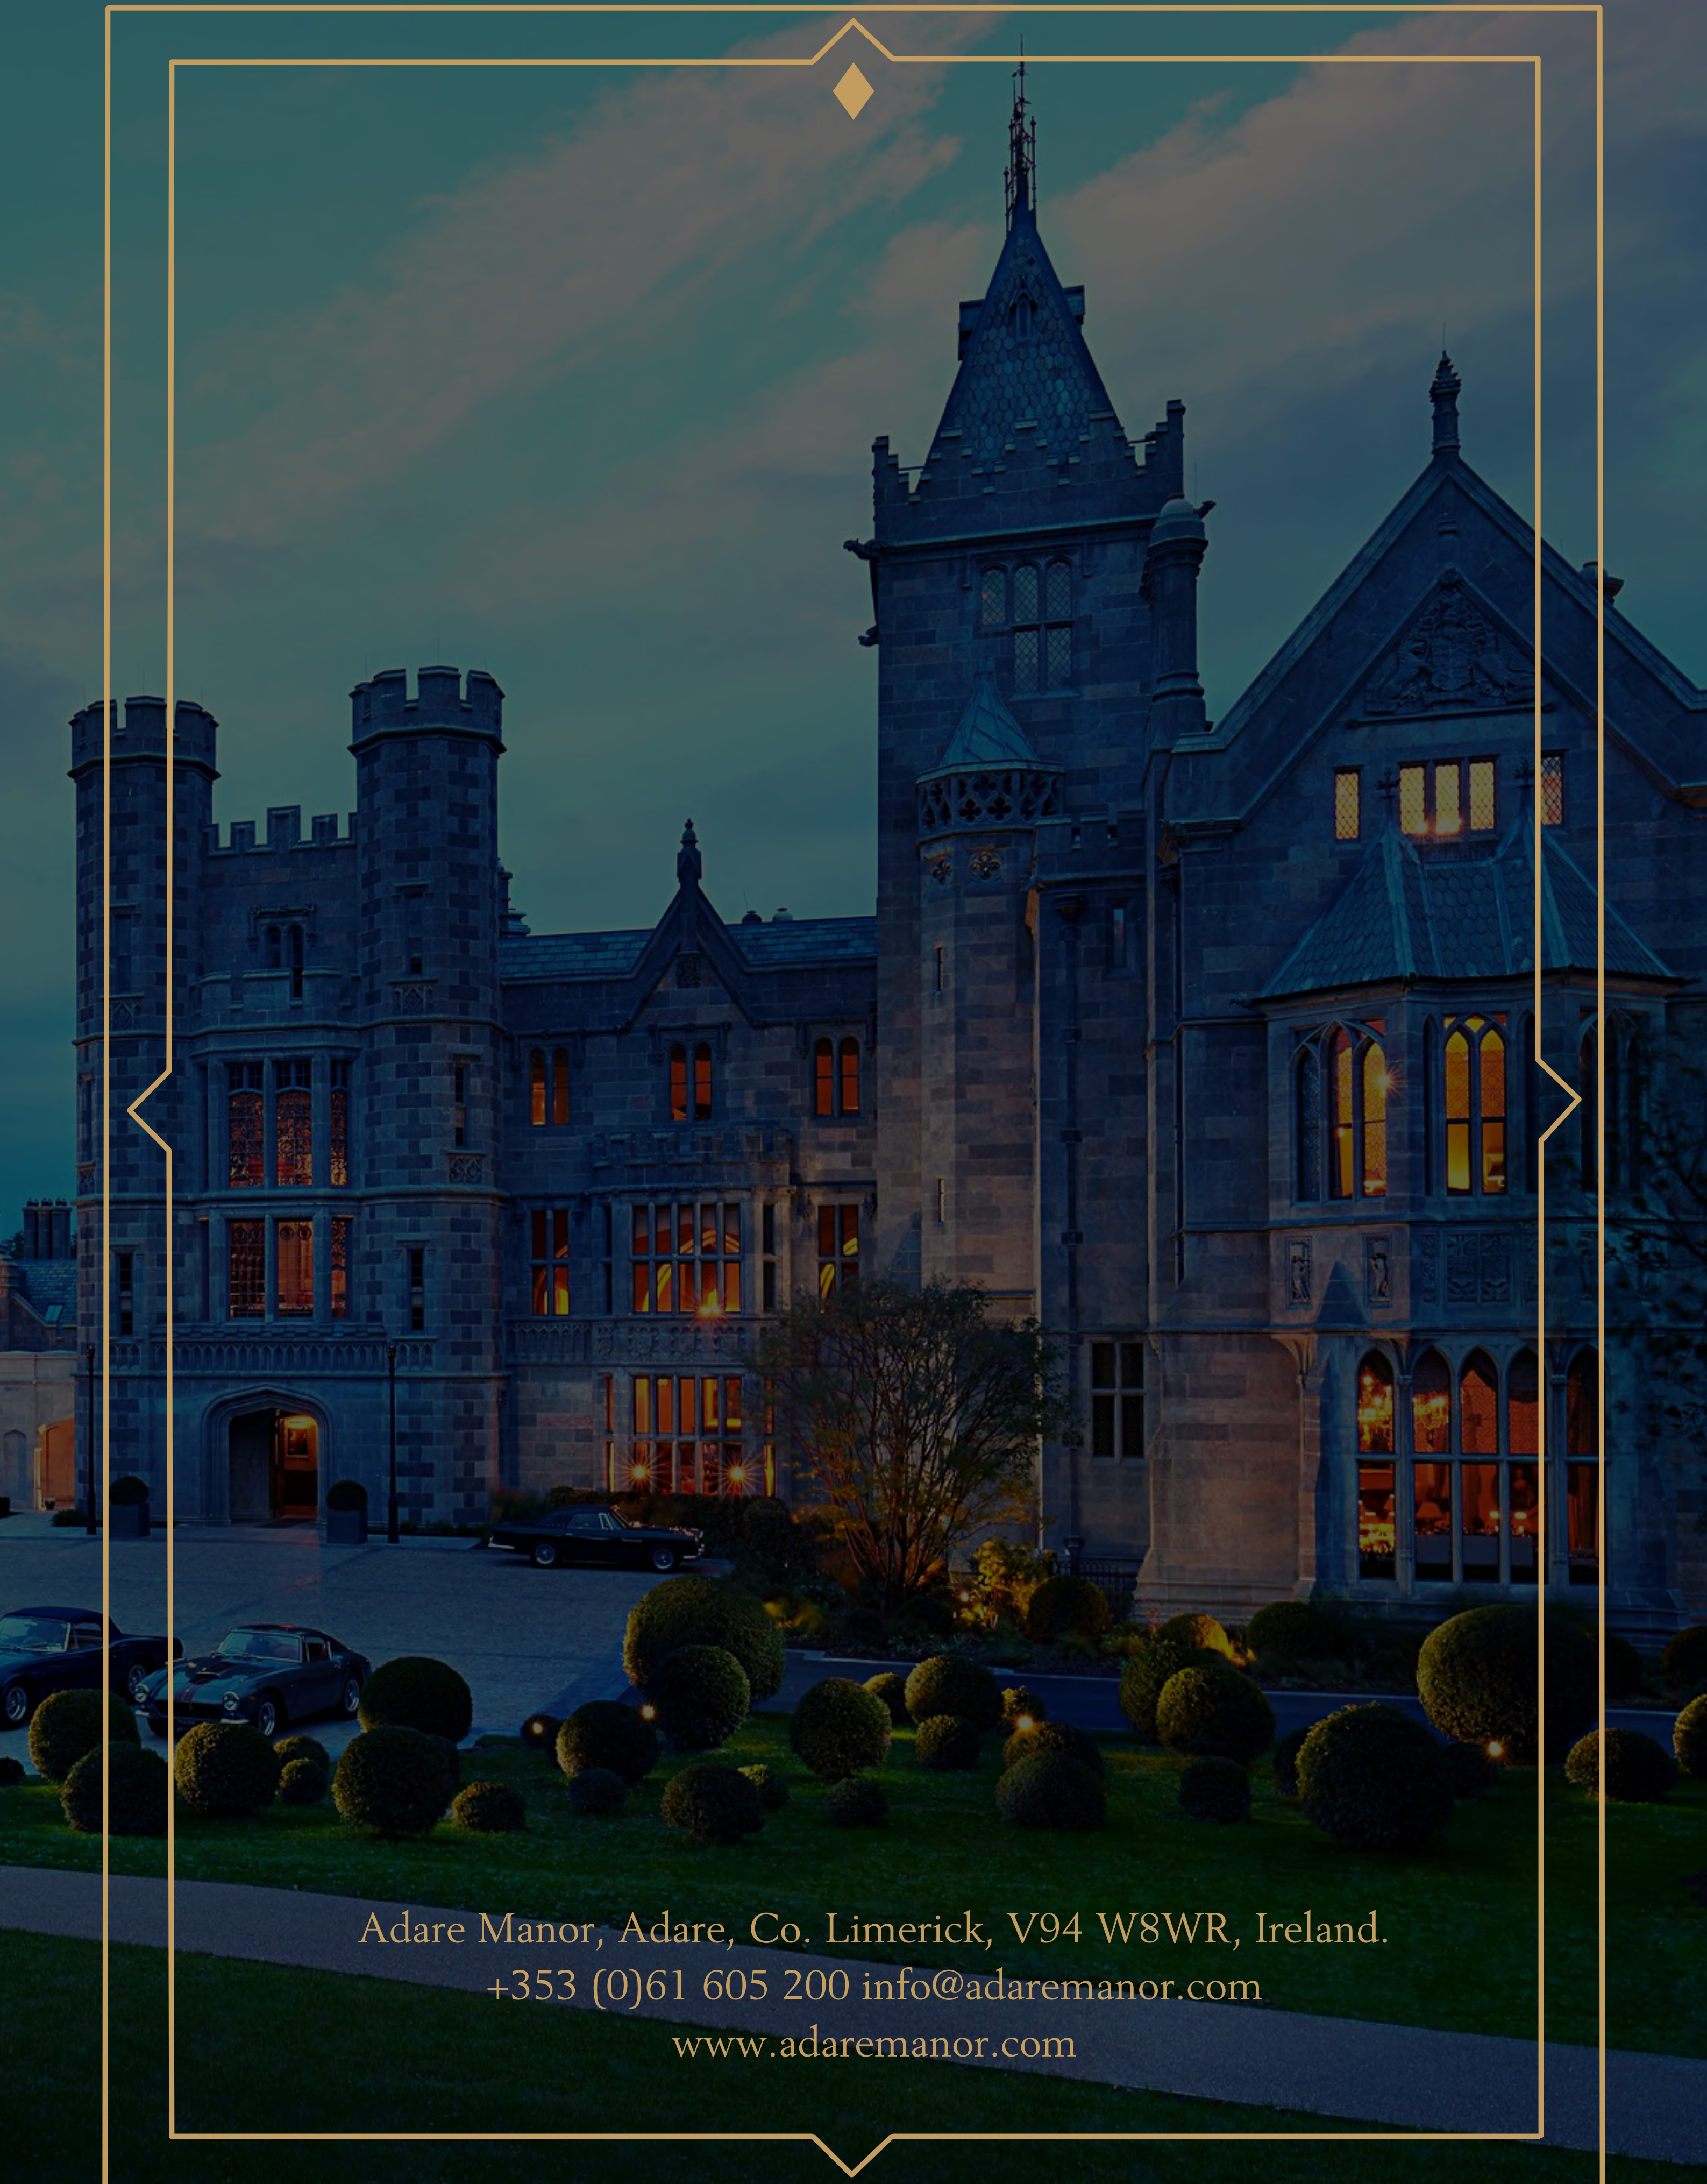

This is only the beginning. Once you've been married at the Manor, you're family. Come back to us for your anniversaries and your family celebrations. Come stay with us for the holidays. A warm welcome will be waiting for you, whenever you return.

Should you wish to arrange a viewing please do let us know what date suits you best. We look forward to meeting with you.
